

Philosophical Masterclass 2024

Kant's Philosophy of the highest Good

Supervision: Prof. Dr. Lawrence Pasternack
(University of Oklahoma)

Date: Monday the 26th of February 2024, 2 pm
until Thursday the 28th of February 2024, 12:30 pm

Location: Katholische Akademie in Bayern (Catholic academy in Bavaria)
Mandlstraße 23 – 80802 Munich (Germany)

The basis for discussion will be the upcoming book by Prof. Pasternack: "Restoring Kant's conception of the Highest Good". Advanced students of philosophy, up-and-coming scientists as well as PhD students will get the opportunity to discuss the kantian conception of the Highest Good. The class will focus on the debate about a this- or otherworldly conception of the Highest Good. For this purpose the participants will read the texts that will form the basis for discussion in advance. The event will be held in English.

Please hand in your application to irp@hfph.de until the 8th of January 2024.

Participation fee: 67.- € (including meals)

If you wish to reside in the catholic academy you can book a room for 76 €/night. In that case please say so in your application.

Further informations can be obtained here:

<https://hfph.de/hochschule/veranstaltungen/kant-und-die-religion>

Hochschule für Philosophie München